Draw

Team captains should collect scorecards from the scorer and enter the team selection of their 6 triples, 30 minutes before the announced start of play. The organizing committee will then make the draw for opponents and rinks.

Reserves

If any team is short of players for any of the games, they may request to draw players from the RBSC list of players available. Players will be assigned to the team that is short of players at the discretion of the RBSC Interport/Triangular Tournament Committee.

Rules of the Competition

All matches will be played in accordance with the Laws of the Sport of Bowls, Crystal Mark third Edition.

Format:

- Six triples.
- Each player will play three bowls.
- There will be a two-bowl trial end, each way, before the start of play.
- Each match will be 18 ends or a time limit of 2.5 hours, whichever is earlier
- A bell will be sounded for the start of play and finished time.
- Visits to the head will be restricted to the skip after his/her delivery of the second bowl.
- Re-spotted jack on center.
- Skip must sign the score card and hand it to the scorer for recording.

Scoring:

- The winner of the match will be determined by total aggregate shots across all six rinks, the side with the higher aggregate shots across all six rinks is the winner.
- If the aggregate shots are equal the side with higher "WIN of 6 rinks" is the winner.
- If the aggregate "WIN of 6 rinks" are equal, the higher "Win of last ends on score card" is the winner.
- An "arbitration committee" will rule on any disputed interpretation of these rules or unexpected situation.
This committee comprises of : The RBSC Convenor, and One representative from each side
